

The Curious Kids Club

Fossil Hunter

Have you ever wanted to search for and find your own fossils, or curate a beautiful collection of your own at home. Take the time to investigate your fossils and discover the lives of creatures from long ago. This award is perfect for all budding paleontologists. Follow your curiosity.

Complete task from each category to earn this award.

Explore Experience Educate

Learn to identify different types of fossils..	Number and label your fossil collection.	Give a short presentation about what you have learnt.
Find out how fossils are formed	Visit a local beach or site to try and find your own fossils.	Set up your own miniature fossil museum.
Watch some episodes of Dino Dana.	Clean and polish your own fossils.	Create a chart or booklet showing the fossils found in your area.
Read a book about Mary Anning.	Categorise your fossils by the type of life form that made them.	Create an educational poster.
Research different types of rocks.	Make your own fossil casts using plasticine and plaster of paris.	Write some field notes about your fossil hunting trip.

Signed

Date completed