

The Curious Kids Club

Lepidopterist

Become a Lepidopterist, research and raise your own butterflies. Find out about species native to your area and some of the most magical butterflies and moths on the planet. Discover the wonder of metamorphosis, migration and pollination as you explore these fascinating creatures

Complete tasks from each category to earn this award.

Explore Experience Educate

Read a book about the life cycle of a butterfly	Raising caterpillars until they turn into butterflies or moths.	Create a local ID guide
Research the species of butterflies and moths local to your area.	Plant a small patch wildflower meadow to encourage butterflies.	Create lifesize replicas of some of your favourite butterflies
Compare the differences between butterflies and moths.	Observe and count the butterflies visiting your garden or local space.	Make a poster about the life cycle of a butterfly.
Map out the migration of the monarch butterfly.	Visit a local butterfly centre to see tropical species up close.	Write a report about ways to help protect butterflies in your area.
Find out how butterflies and moths help to pollinate plants.	Set up a night time moth trap and record the species you find.	Decorate the windows in your home with butterfly art.

Signed

Date completed