

The Curious Kids Club

Owl Ornithologist

Discover different species of owl, investigate what they eat, how they live. Take a moonlit walk to observe owls first hand or visit a bird of prey centre to get up close and personal. Owls are fascinating creatures full of mystery, use your research skills to unravel some of their secrets. Follow your curiosity.

Complete task from each category to earn this award.

Explore Experience Educate

Find out what owl species live in your area.	Dissect an owl pellet, sort and identify the bones you find	Write and illustrate a story book about an owl.
Listen to different owl calls.	Draw a detailed observational drawing of an owl.	Create an educational poster.
Read a book about owls.	Go on a night time owl spotting walk, what can you see and hear?	Create a nature journal page about owls
Research Owl Anatomy.	Create an owl centered food web.	Give a short presentation about what you have learnt.
Read about owls in poetry and mythology.	Visit a bird of prey centre to see some different species of owls.	Write a report on an owl experiment.

Signed

Date completed