

I have a little
poppy,

As red as red
can be,

To show that I
remember,

Those who fought
to make me free.

I have a little
poppy,

As red as red
can be,

To show that I
remember,

Those who fought
to make me free.

I have a little
poppy,

As red as red
can be,

To show that I
remember,

Those who fought
to make me free.

I have a little
poppy,

As red as red
can be,

To show that I
remember,

Those who fought
to make me free.
